

HAMPTON HISTORY MUSEUM CAMPS

"Dig into History"

Monday-Thursday, June 26-29,

9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m. each day.

Cost: $125.

Ages 8-14.

Enjoy this archeology camp by getting your hands dirty digging into Virginia's past. Students will learn about how archaeologists work as they explore the Museum's galleries, visit Tidewater archaeological sites, and even dig in the dirt with real archaeologists. Fee includes project materials and at least one field trip.

"Steppin' through Time"

Wednesday, July 19

9:00 a.m.-3:00 p.m.

Cost $35.00.

Ages 7-14.

An exploration of music and dance of many cultures; children will participate in dances and music of Native Americans, African Americans, and the 17th, 18th, and 19th centuries.

"The Crown Mystery Tour"

Wednesday, July 26

10:00 a.m.-12:00 noon

Cost $5.00.

Ages 4-6.

This delightful program lets younger children explore the Museum as they follow a set of rhyming clues through the galleries to solve the mystery of the missing crown. The morning concludes with the children playing several games from centuries past and decorating their own crowns to take home.
